This two-volume English translation of part of a longer travel narrative by the Ottoman aristocrat Evliya Celebi (1611-c.1680) was translated by the Austrian scholar Joseph von Hammer (1774-1856) and published in 1834 by the Oriental Translation Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, set up to make 'Eastern' texts more widely available in English. Celebi was highly educated, had served the Ottoman court both as a diplomat and as a soldier, and as he says, had in his travels 'seen the countries of eighteen monarchs and heard 147 different languages'. His lifetime encompassed the highest point of Ottoman expansion into Europe, and his indefatigable curiosity about everything he saw makes this work a fascinating assemblage of topics varying from the fountains of Istanbul to a journey to Georgia. Volume 1 includes a short biography of Celebi and accounts of the history and architecture of his native city.

俄罗斯跳脚，这两天正好在读奥斯曼与莫斯科公国的材料，这本是17世纪的奥斯曼旅行笔记，一共两册，第一册君士坦丁堡历史，第二册黑海沿岸游记。真是个有趣的时代啊，莫斯科刚打下喀山汗国，看不够的君士坦丁堡，哥萨克和鞑靼海盗横行，各国商人聚集在黑海的港口城市。
