A small child is making his way through the jungle, first walking, then creeping, running, leaping, swinging and finally wading. As he goes, he hears various noises - ssssss, grrrrrr, trump trump, roarrrr, chitter chatter, snap snap - after each of which the page is turned to reveal the animal responsible. Text and artwork combine to encourage audience participation on the levels of both sound and movement - and to create a guessing game. Julie Lacome has illustrated "Sing a Song of Sixpence"; "A was Once an Apple Pie"; "I'm a Jolly Farmer"; "Noisy Noises on the Farm" and "The Shape of Things".
