This book's focus is on the concept of the leader as a bearer of meaning and purpose within the organization, and the significance of this for coaching and team-building. The author presents tools for the development of managers as coaches and models for how to achieve this. For a manager, coaching is a practice and a philosophy. This is a seminal work on coaching and team building in relation to the culture of the company, the board and the individual, written by a leading practitioner.
