A monograph on the award-winning Jordanian architect Rasem Badran (b. 1945), and a celebration of his works. The introduction explains the author's first encounter with Badran's work and provides a brief outline of the architect's unique approach to architecture. The main book is divided into seven chapters, tracing Badran's training in Palestine and Germany and his subsequent return to the Middle East. His concepts and works are discussed and generously illustrated with photographs and original drawings by the architect. An illustrated chronological list of his works is included in the endmatter.

这么好的建筑师忽略了太可惜。。。

手稿牛的一比

刚沙特回来，站在他的建筑作品面前，我自己就崩溃了，那些都是精神空间，礼拜四建筑更为出色。回来后再读了几遍，设计师方法也就落地了。
