Don't miss A to Z Mysteries—alphabetic adventures that are full of thrills, chills, and cases to crack!

V is for Vampire...

In the twenty-second book of the A to Z Mysteries—an early chapter book mystery series featuring strong boy and girl characters—there's a villainous vibe coming from the pale, dark-haired man Dink, Josh, and Ruth Rose see in the supermarket. When they follow him into Ellie's Diner, the stranger vanishes! But there's a cut on Ellie's neck - or could it be a bite? Could there really be a vampire in town? And could Dink, Josh, and Ruth Rose be his next victims? Grab your garlic, Green Lawn!

Each book includes a map and a letter from the author. Parents, teachers, and librarians agree that these highly collectible chapter books are perfect for emerging readers and any kid who love mysteries!

that's so cool. You can't judge a book by its cover

In this book, Josh met a weird man dressed in black and assumed he's a vampire. People like to accuse a person of being mean or lazy or sloppy or dumb or something just because of how the person looks like on the outside. Just like the expression " You cannot judge a book by its cover". The same is true when you look at a person.
