Scene by Scene consists of detailed, incisive discussions in which film directors and actors analyse key scenes from their film output. Presented in a lively and accessible manner by director Mark Cousins and fully illustrated throughout with numerous film frames, this book includes some of the most important scenes from the last 40 years of film. It will appeal both to the general reader and those wishing to learn more about the craft of film-making.

The approximately 35 scenes in the book illustrate the technical excellence of the director or actor in question and are flanked by a brief introduction and a bibliographical section and index. Those interviewed include some of the most famous names in film, such as Woody Allen, Bernardo Bertolucci, Jonathan Demme, Dennis Hopper, Danid Lynch, Brian De Palma, Roman Polanski, Paul Schrader, Martin Scorsese, Lauren bacall Jeff Bridges, James Coburn, Sean Connery, Kirk Douglas, Janet Leigh, Jack Lemmon, Steve Martin, Jane Russell, Terence Stamp, Rod Steiger and Donald Sutherland.

评论

(借自大佑) 破烂司机, Schrader和Brian De Palma的访谈都很好, 其余有些没怎么展开……

4.5 Mark

Cousins還給我簽過名㗎...嘿嘿嘿.....不过我这本书品相一般就是了。通过访谈影片镜头，观后即聊，也许是演员，也许是导演，也许是编剧，也许是摄影，总之从不同角度阅读到有关镜头的故事。
