Fashion Faces Up celebrates the best in fashion and style photography today. For this edition, more than one and hundred and twenty of the leading figures in the field were asked to donate a special image in aid of Gilda's-a foundation to aid the families of cancer patients, in honor of the late Gilda Radner-and this beautiful and touching book is the result of their imaginative and intriguingly varied responses. International in its scope, the publication features the work of established masters-from Richard Avedon and Lillian Bassman to Paolo Roversi and Peter Lindbergh, and from Eve Arnold and Nan Goldin to Jeanloup Sieff and Ellen von Unwerth-in addition to showcasing the most exciting of the newer talents in the medium, including Miles Aldrich, Nathaniel Goldberg, and Clarence Klingbeil.
