This book presents a feast of memorable images from the Middle Ages to the twentieth century. Five hundred great artists, from Agasse to Zurbaran, are each represented by a full-colour plate of a key work. Reflecting all the periods, schools and styles that make up our rich artistic heritage, these beautifully reproduced works of art come together in surprising combinations with every turn of the page. Each entry includes a short biography, and a series of chronological charts at the end of the book provides a historical perspective.
