"The Spirit in Man, Art and Literature" offers penetrating insights into the lives and opinions of some of the most significant players in the cultural life of the 20th century. Carl Gustav Jung was at the heart of that cultural life, pioneering, along with Freud, a new interpretation of what it meant to be human in the modern age. This volume reveals the full range of Jung's involvement in this process, from his famous analysis of "Psychology and Literature" to his landmark texts on Joyce's "Ulysses" and Picasso's paintings. Jung writes of Freud from the perspective of one who was "permitted a deep glimpse into the mind of this remarkable man," and through the memories and opinions recorded in "The Spirit in Man, Art and Literature", the reader is offered a similar privilege.

评论

“The voice of all mankind resounds in us.” 荣格的表达真是优美呢～# On the relation of analytical psychology to poetry

-----
读荣格真是写论文第一爽事。然而他的literature reference我只能看懂但丁歌德莎士比亚和陀氏，剩下的不明觉厉。目前准备顺着他提过的书单看下去（if that ever happens）。
