作者介绍:

Born in Jena, Germany in 1954, Werner Büttner was a law student when he befriended artist Albert Oehlen, whose influence prompted him to give up his future law career to take up art. He is now a successful artist based in Hamburg, where he is professor at the Hochschule für bildende Künste.

His work has been exhibited with Oehlen's as well as Martin Kippenberger's and is considered to be of the same tradition. Coinciding with the exhibition Werner Büttner: Verkehrte Welt at the Deichtorhallen in Hamburg this book covers about 150 pieces from the last two decades - from oil on canvas and drawings to collages, personal photographs, and invitations.

Also included are a foreword by Zdenek Felix (director of Deichtorhallen), five texts by friends and colleagues of Büttner (Michael Diers, Harald Falckenberg, Friedrich Wolfram Heubach, Fritz Kramer, and Rudolf Schmitz), an exhibition chronology, and a bibliography.

维尔纳·比特内尔喜欢用粗犷的笔法、强烈的色彩、讽刺与幽默的语境来表现回应日常生活里的主题，在那些充满隐喻的形象里，维尔纳·比特内尔的批判、挑衅和禁忌性绘画象一个年轻的野蛮人在不断地破坏他所经历的一切，好比一个政治宣言，格外形而上。
