The allure of the private world, the mystery of what's hidden, and the pleasure of being allowed to peek. Every month, find a place of respite and rejuvenation. Open the gate, find a break in the hedge. Follow the birds. Sunlight, layers of greenery, water, a found object here and there—composed by a gardener's vision, it is a place apart from the world.

For 2006, Smith & Hawken's Secret Garden Calendar features twelve sanctuaries that engulf all who enter—even if just in a daydream—in peace and serenity. A rocky stream flanked by colorful wildflowers. A bench beneath a glorious blooming crabapple—an invitation to sit, meditate, and contemplate. Accompanying the photographs are sidebars with quotes and appreciations.
