Our homes are often a good reflection of the health of our relationships. Neglect, out-of-date decor, and accumulating mess and clutter can all be signs that a relationship needs attention. Now there's a fresh, hands-on resource that can help anyone create a home that's beautiful, as well as harmonious. Part counseling manual, part decor guide, Our Place turns the entire process of redecorating a home into a relationship-strengthening journey. Readers will find dozens of creative ideas, interesting tips, and even ready-to-use charts and questionnaires to help them make mutual decisions and work together toward creating a better living space. From planning the job to enjoying the finished result, this manual uses every aspect of home decoration as a way to create gorgeous living spaces while enhancing key relationships in every area of life. Whether one is living with a spouse, partner, roommate, or family member, Our Place is the one book that demonstrates unique, positive ways to build a wonderful new home, forge a stronger relationship, and enjoy a happier life!
