Streetwise charmer Eddy walks into the biggest card game of his life with 100,000 of his own--and his friends'--money. But the game is fixed and Eddy ends up owing half a million to porn king and general bad guy Hatchet Harry. Eddy has a week to come up with the money before he starts losing his fingers to Harry's sinister debt collector, Big Chris--unless he can persuade his dad to hand over his beloved bar instead. Or maybe Eddy and his mates can come up with a better plan. The virile foursome keeps focused on the big grab, even as all hell breaks loose around them. This original screenplay by director Guy Ritchie has all the plot-twisting, high-adrenaline action of his instant cult film.
