Fifteen names related to the Galician plastic arts, fifteen points of view with a common root, the ones that they have because they belong, one way or another, to the telluric power of the Finisterrae. Trips, readings, friendships, artistic passions and technical knowledge that lead to a proof of what painting can achieve, establishing with the spectator a fruitful conversation that has to do with people, landscapes and memories of life. Thus, these pages are nothing but a tribute, a recognition of the work of those people who have so many things to say, using the visual elements. The image force.
