A communications consultant and self-proclaimed “intellectual skeptic,” Herbert Kramer had everything to live for-until he was diagnosed with incurable cancer at the age of 67. And suddenly Death,the unknown,unwelcomed enemy,was now his constant companion.

But with the help of his wife,Kay-a chinal social worker and specialist in counseling-Herbert was able to voice his apprehensions,to confront his fears openly and honestly,and,ultimately,to come to terms with his own mortality.

CONVERSATIONS AT MIDNIGHT is their dialogue-a powerful, important,and comforting aid to coping with death's finality...a profoundly inspirational journey to understanding,personal discovery and inner peace.
