Unique in both scope and organization, this book presents an intriguing yet challenging introduction to the world's great ideas concerning the nature of human nature &#151; with a sampling of different approaches. The selections are drawn from religious writings, academic treatises, nonfiction, fiction, etc. &#151; enabling readers to encounter the great thinkers through their own words. Organizes selections into intellectually coherent topics&#151; Religious/Mythic Views, The Mind, The Social Setting, The Human Animal? &#151; and then subtopics &#151; e.g., The Role of Reason, The Limits of Reason, People Are Basically Nasty, People Are Basically Good, Animals as &#147;Human,&#148; and Vice Versa, Sex and Gender, etc.
