Book Description

The truth behind the fame.

We're exposed to celebrities everywhere-on the big screen, on television, in magazines, on the radio-and they all seem larger than life. But what are their real stories, behind all the glitz and glamour? This is the question that E! True Hollywood Story asks, and the results have turned it into one of the hottest shows on TV. Based on actual transcripts from the compelling television program, this volume features the dramatic true stories of today's most fascinating celebrities, including Katie Couric, Goldie Hawn and Kate Hudson, Dr. Phil, Arnold Schwarzenegger and Maria Shriver, JFK Jr., Ellen DeGeneres, Ginger Lynn, the Judds, Eminem, Anna Nicole Smith, Liza Minnelli, Doris Day, Diana Ross, Heather Mills McCartney, and Paris and Nicky Hilton. Just like the television show, these celebrity tales are gripping, poignant, and ultimately fascinating.
