Seven of Jamie Lee Curtis's very popular books to grow by available unabridged on audio!

This collection includes:

Is There Really a Human Race?: This funny and touching fantasy is a dialogue between child and parent reminding us that being human is all about making good choices and relishing life's journey.

It's Hard to be Five: Learning How to Work My Control Panel: Learning not to hit? Having to wait your turn? Sitting still?! It's definitely hard to be five, but this encouraging book makes the struggles of self-control a little easier, and a lot more fun.

When I Was Little: A Four-Year-Old's Memoir of Her Youth: In this simple, childlike celebration of personal identity, a little girl looks back on her childhood from the lofty height of four and half years, and discovers that she is a unique individual.

Tell Me Again About the Night I Was Born: "Tell me again how you would adopt me and be my parents . . . ," a heartwarming story of not only how one child is born but also how a family is born.

Today I Feel Silly & Other Moods That Make My Day, helps kids explore, identify, and even have fun with their ever-changing moods.

Where Do Balloons Go? An Uplifting Mystery: When one little boy accidentally lets go of his balloon, his imagination takes him on a journey. This delightful mystery about letting go uses imagination as a tool to deal with loss.

I'm Gonna Like Me: Letting Off a Little Self-Esteem, whimsically demonstrates that it's important to like yourself every single day;no matter what.
