Kids go on a crazy vehicle-hopping journey with Miss Lollipop and her wacky crew of animal friends. They're off on an adventure, looking for Tiger's birthday presents. Miss Lollipop and Tiger begin their journey in a car—until she shouts "All change!" Out they jump, and land in a train. Next they travel in a boat ... then in a whale ... then in a plane ... then in a dump truck ... and then a racing car. Every time someone calls out "All change!" and they jump into a new vehicle, a new animal joins the party. At the story's end they really do have a party. It's Tiger's birthday party—complete with all the presents he was looking for. Comical full-color illustrations on every page.
