ARE YOU INVOLVED IN A TOXIC RELATIONSHIP?

The symptoms vary from stomach pains to blinding headaches, from chronic backaches to severe colds;

The causes are varied;from a spouse who is withdrawing sexually, to a parent who is overly critical, to a lover who "isn't ready" to commit, to a boss who is abusive

There are periods of stress in every relationship, but psychological studies reveal that some relationships can reach poisonous levels of toxic emotions;and that our response to these stresses can be harmful to our emotional and physical health.

Are you involved in such a relationship? If so, what can you do about it? Lethal Lovers and Poisonous People shows you!
