From Booklist

This addition to the popular Chicken Soup series blends a variety of stories—heartwarming, humorous, and poignant—to create a volume with broad appeal. Those passionate about love will appreciate stories like "An Evening at the Waldorf," in which the renowned hotel helps one man get his girl, and "Prince Charming," in which a young woman searches for her true love only to find him right in front of her. Comedy lovers will adore "Ready to Be Entertained," a tale about mistaken identity at the local video store, and Dave Barry's "Road to Romantic Ruin Is Paved with Practical Gifts." Finally there are emotion-filled stories like "Angel on the Beach," a piece about overcoming the grief of losing a spouse, and the touching "Mourning the Loss, Mending the Heart," in which one couple handles a diagnosis of rheumatoid arthritis. Chicken Soup for the Romantic Soul will surely charm romantics and cynics alike.
