Readers have come to delight in the murdersolving exploits of septuagenarian Sister Mary Helen, a nun with a nose for trouble. Once you meet this spry, clever sleuth, you'll want to make a habit of reading her adventures again and again.

Birds of a feather flock together, and a convention of the OWLs(Older Women's League) takes Sister Mary Helen to New York City. Aside from sightseeing and some divinely inspired workshops, she's most interested in discovering the reason behind the secretive behavior of her old friend Erma Duran. And once they return to San Francisco. Erma disappears. A religious medal left behind and a cryptic clue connected to a Byzantine Madonna send a worried Sister Mary Helen to Kate Murphy at the SFPD for help. But the wise old nun continues snooping where angels fear to tread. Now she's headed for a web of sin and sorrow...and a dangerous entanglement with death.
