The Wizard of OZ (Unabridged)

Poor, young Dorothy thinks that nothing can possibly be worse than life on the Kansas farm. But, when a cyclone transports her to the Land of Oz, she soon realizes that there really is "no place like home". On her quest to get to the center of Oz, Dorothy makes some strange friends: The Scarecrow, The Tin Man, and the Cowardly Lion all want something from the Wizard. Dorothy learns a great deal about herself, and about the importance of loving your home. By: L. Frank Baum

The Jungle Book (Unabridged)

Follow Mowgli on his adventures as he grows up in an Indian jungle, raised by a loving family of wolves and educated by a fun loving bear. Charming and creative, The Jungle Book is filled with unexpected troubles and foibles followed by well-learned lessons. Discover why this classic children's book continues to enter a in kids all over the world. By: Rudyard Kipling

Aesop's Fables (Unabridged)

Animals with very human flaws teach kids valuable moral lessons that will be sure to make a lifetime impression. With a variety of fables with surprising outcomes, these stories both entertain and educate young minds about classic virtues that will never go out of style. By: Aesop

Alice in Wonderland (Unabridged)

Join Alice as she falls down a rabbit hole in this timeless children's favorite story. Alice is in search of the white rabbit carrying a pocket watch, wearing a waistcoat, and muttering to himself. Little does she know, an adventure is in store for her with a colorful cast of characters and an amazing outcome! By: Lewis Carroll
