Xiaohong Liu brings 12 years of personal experience in the Chinese Foreign Service to this path-breaking study. Drawing on her own direct observations, interviews, and newly available Chinese sources, she examines four generations of Chinese ambassadors, who served from 1949 to 1994. She charts the evolution of the Chinese diplomatic corps from its early military orientation to the emergence of career professionals and assesses the impact of various ambassadors on Chinese foreign policy.

一般，史料类。

More of a political tabloids and episodic scandals inside the Chinese MFA, instead of a solid scientific and theoretical research. Bit dissatisfied with this SAIS product.
