In 101 Simple Lessons for Life you will find real-life stories and thoughtful reflections that will make you laugh, make you think, and invite you to see powerful, time-honored truths with new eyes and a fresh spirit. With her trademark humor and insight, Marsha Marks offers:

- * Four words that can transform how you respond to any situation, person, or difficulty
- * How to tell a wise man from a fool in two easy lessons
- * The most important thing to look for in a marriage partner
- * One simple secret to finding wisdom

* And 97 other simple lessons that will change your life!

Marsha Marks is a popular speaker and author known for her ability to blend humor with spiritual insights. She is the author of 101 Amazing Things about God and a former contributing editor to Campus Life. Her articles and stories have appeared in such publications as Writer's Digest, Eternity, Moody Monthly and The Christian Reader, and she has appeared on numerous radio and television programs, including the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association's Hour of Decision. Her column, "A Few Minutes with Marsha," appears weekly in the Effingham Herald. Marsha and her family make their home in Savannah, Georgia.
