Cambridge Literature is a series of literary texts edited for study by students aged 14–18 in English-speaking classrooms. It will include novels, poetry, short stories, essays, travel-writing and other non-fiction. The series will be extensive and open-ended and will provide school students with a range of edited texts taken from a wide geographical spread. It will include writing in English from various genres and differing times. Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte is edited by Susan Cockcroft of Mackworth College, Derby.

Zealous pursuing for love, reminding me of "Two people searching for love, love found, love lost" in Music & Lyrics, which is, by and large, a vivid portrait of "You and me are doing a love autopsy", provokes me by establishing a fresh lady like Jane, an internal conflict, a continuously solid contemplation, stimulus and spiritual dedication. Bravo!

So passionate a book!
