Nina has never been so excited! It's the summer holidays and her mum is taking her to the Festival for the Fairy Arts - and Peri and Bella are coming too! From fairy musicians to fairy painters and of course, fairy ballerinas, the most talented fairies in fairyland join together for a spectacular celebration. There's a competition too and Nina is determined that she and her friends will win with their ballet performance. But then Peri decides to compete with the fairy actors instead ...
