The Cuthberts ask the orphanage for a boy to help at their farm, but a little girl steps off the train. Anne causes chaos at Green Gables, but her good nature wins everyone's heart.

作者介绍:

Lucy Maud Montgomery (1874-1942) was a Canadian writer. She is most famous for her children's stories. She was born on Prince Edward Island. After her mother died in 1876, she lived with her grandmother and grandfather on their farm. She liked reading and writing stories.

Later, she went to collage-first in Nova Scotia, and then in Charlottetown on Prince Edward Island. She was a teacher for three years, and later she worked for a newspaper, the Halifax Daily Echo. She started writing stories and poems for newspapers and magazines. In 1911, she married a minister and moved with him to Toronto. But most of her stories are about her home, Prince Edward Island.

She wrote other books about Anne, but Anne of Green Gables is the most famous. People of ages love Anne, the little orphan girl with red hair.
