More than 400 colour photos illustrate this important reference and price guide to dolls from the post-war era. Baby boomers have come of age, and toys from the era of their childhood have experienced a tremendous surge of popularity. This full-size book includes background information on more than 50 companies manufacturing dolls during this time, from well-known firms like Mattel, Ideal and Madame Alexander to smaller, lesser-known producers. The cast of characters includes legendary dolls such as Barbie, Ginny, Tammy and Miss Revlon as well as film and television-based favourites like Shirley Temple, Patty Duke, The Flying Nun and Pebbles and Barn Barn. Author Michele Karl, collector and expert in the field, presents her extensive research and shares her enthusiasm for the vast array of dolls available during the 1950s and 1960s.
