Illustration Play explores new trends in handcrafted illustration, each of which lends a welcome departure from digitally generated graphics. In a bold departure from the pixel based aesthetic, Illustration Play focuses rather on the return to experimental and unique techniques such as paper cutting, stitching, knitting, needlework, origami, patchwork and more. Thirty artists from around the globe present their distinct yet diverse perspectives on their signature styles, and the myriad skills they bring to each project, and share their resounding successes. Contributors include Catalina Estrada, Genevieve Dionne, Melvin Galapon, Caroline Hwang, Steven Harrington, Johanna Lundberg, Miles Donovan, Stephanie Dotson, Peter Callesen, AJ Fosik, Richard Saja, Ian Wright and many more. Through interviews and photos of the studios where they find their inspiration, the artists and designers takes you on a voyeuristic journey through their personal realms and share their work from vision and imagination to creation.

评论

装帧很好的一本插画合集，比那种一个插画师就两三张画的书也好得多，里面的介绍和采访形式也很有意思，其中有好多个都是喜欢了挺长时间的插画师，感觉是成功案例的介绍，但是里面艺术家的风格选择得很有意思很多并不是单单二维上的创作

内有杰克白夫妇和隆隆

拼布

里面看到了北极猴猴~哈哈

外文书质量真的没的说

我爱我封面胜过内容

可惜今天没时间，只能草草翻过。很好的理念。

插图应该很有意思，应该是跳出平面的范畴，是立体的，是材料的，是构成的。最厌恶所谓的商业插图。
