This book makes it clear it is essential for the American people in general to know and realize that there are very clear differences in the teachings of the Universal Religion of Islam and the teachings of the Nation of Islam. In order for people to make an accurate and clear judgement or decision about anyone or anything it is always best for them to have as much correct information as possible. AUTHORBIO: Mustafa El-Amin holds a B.A. Degree in Community Development and a Masters Degree in Public Administration from Rutgers University. Mustafa is the author of five books, including: Freemasonry Ancient Egypt and the Islaamic Destiny, African American Freemasons: Why they should accept Al-Islam, etc.
