Book Description

A Large Print Mystery

Murder on the Mount

A Jack Prester Mystery

Sandy Dengler

Jack Prester really wants to spend Christmas with his family in Hawaii - if he can just solve this mystery in time. But the pieces to the puzzle aren't fitting together very quickly. Even with the aid of his beautiful partner, Evelyn Brant, and his faithful Lab, Maxx, it looks like they'll be spending Christmas in Mount Rainier National Park. The murder victim is John Getz, an environmentalist who wanted to preserve the park by making it inaccessible. The suspects range from a druid who believes Mount Rainier is holy ground to an activist who is campaigning for wheelchair access to the top of the peak. And the town kook may have the most bizarre answer to the murderer's identity: Bigfoot.
