Book Description

Just as bride-to-be Julia Spinelli is about to throw the swankiest wedding Fredericksburg, Texas, has ever seen, in roll her Jersey parents in all their tacky glory-and out rolls her hope for happily-ever-after. If she can't convince her father that her fiancé is head-over-heels for her and not her trust fund, the wedding is off.

From Booklist

Five days before she is scheduled to marry Roman Sonntag, Julia Spinelli fires her wedding planner. Now Julia has less than a week to pull together the most perfect wedding Fredericksburg, Texas, has ever seen. With the help of her sister, Syd, Julia tries to overcome a variety of last-minute obstacles, including a suddenly unavailable wedding dress, a lack of location, an ex-boyfriend who shows up interested in picking up where he left off, and two father-in-laws who have been feuding for 15 years. Just as everything finally seems to be falling into place, Julia detects one last little problem: she is starting to wonder whether Roman truly loves her for herself or for her trust fund. Kenner brings the Bridesmaid Chronicles, a quartet of romances that feature the adventures of four different New York City gals who find love with sexy Texas guys, to a satisfying conclusion with this cleverly constructed contemporary love story notable for its snappy dialogue and sharp humor.
