At last we have an answer to the question: What do alien kids read?Who knows how many light-years this beaten-up,weatherworn volume has traveled to land up in the hands of an earthling like you? This rare artifact from another planet is written in an entirely alien language and alphabet, which you may be the first human to decipher. Whichever galaxy they're from, these interwoven tales prove that some stories are indeed universal and that others are, well weird, bizarre, and clearly not of this world. But no matter how many eyes, legs, or tentacles they have, it's nice to know that aliens too can smile, cry, poop, make friends, be kind or be cruel, fall prey to peer pressure, and sometimes make a total mess of things while trying to do good. Thanks to this extraordinary discovery from a world far, far away, serious ufologists everywhere are now rethinking their profession, while asking themselves: Do aliens really let their kids read this stuff?

虽然看的是波兰出版社的版本……，但由于里面角色的话语都是画家的“自创语言”，所以也就无所谓了・我还是喜欢First Second的英文版封面。那只瞎了眼睛的青色“小兽”肯定是最受人喜欢的，不仅出现在封面上，还有个专门的Flash小游戏来虐虐它~ 好玩。

法语Gallimard版。封面画了9个小怪兽，以为是有趣的设定，没想到故事这么残忍……
