This guidebook is expected instock in all regions by mid-February 2008 and will ship on arrival. Current edition of the Denmark Travel Guide available until December '07.

According to an international survey, Danish people are the happiest in the world. Is it the refreshment of spinning around the country's hundreds of cycleways? The exquisite sense of design? Or perhaps pride in the 900-year history of one of the world's oldest kingdoms? This guidebook is packed full of itineraries, interviews with locals and a resident chef's recommendations. See, you're smiling already.
