This book presents significant new findings on new domains of employment for women in China's burgeoning market economy of the 1990s and the twenty-first century. Experts in gender, politics, media studies, and anthropology discuss the impact of economic reform and globalization on Chinese women in family businesses, management, the professions, the prostitution industry and domestic service. Significant themes include changing marriage and consumer aspirations and the reinvention of domestic space. The volume offers fresh insights into changing definitions of 'women's work' in contemporary China and questions women's perceived 'disadvantage' in the market economy.

评论

出发点和各章标题都很有趣……而内容与思路均乏善可陈（也或许是因为此书出版于20

04年。只能说书中很多对女性“agency & empowerment”的乐观预期在十几年后的今天并未实现，甚至显得too naive…)
