This book explores the writer's narrative journey into the inner depths of the human being through the study of the most important themes and aspects of her work. Instead of following one determined critical theory, the different subjects are approached from a variety of viewpoints, ranging from Aristotle to Marx, from Cervantes to Ortega y Gasset, and from Horace to Eagleton, according to their applicability. Contents: Note; Preface; About Rosa Montero; Winners and Losers; Love, Desire, Obsession; The Modern Jungle; Beloved Power, Elusive Wisdom; The Agony of Decline; Conquest Through Seduction; Bibliography; Index.
