'Hot Jazz Special', a book of red-hot rhymes & cool cats, is his first offering for children & published by Walker Books. It was shortlisted for the 2005 V & A Illustration Award. His other passions include Hank Williams & Emmett Miller at The Unquiet Grave. He often wears correspondent shoes & enjoys the odd fine whisky, whilst constantly pondering the life & times of the mysterious Rocket Man.

作者介绍:

Jonny Hannah's Cakes & Ales screenprints are available for purchase from Children's Book Illustration.

Jonny Hannah was born & bred in Dunfermline, in the kingdom of Fife. He studied illustration at Liverpool Art School, where he was taught by the legendary Peter Bailey, & then The Royal College of Art. Since he graduated in 1998, he has constantly worked as an illustrator in most fields.

He has collaborated with the animator Jonathan Hodgson, & in 2000 they completed 'The Man With The Beautiful Eyes', a five minute animation for Channel Four Television which went on to win umpteen awards, including the BAFTA that year.

Jonny likes to spend some of his hard earned money on his cottage industry, Cakes & Ale Press, screenprinting books, posters, prints & boxed sets. In 2001 he co-published 'The Captain's Alphabet' with Peter Sampson at Merivale Editions, which like most of his fine printed ephemera, quickly sold out.
