This a revised and updated version of this introductory language text book. Including a range of activities and projects, the book introduces the core areas of language structure and grammar through the analysis of real texts. This edition includes: an introductory section on how to use the book; material on differences between spoken and written language; children's language; language and ideology; an updated range of texts, including advertisements, beer mats, horoscopes, newspaper articles, junk mail, comedy sketches, political speeches, letters; more extensions suggesting project work and an answer key at the back; a concluding section including further analyses, which gives the student practice in analyzing all the different aspects explored throughout the book.
