In this panoramic tour of America's military past, acclaimed artist Don Troiani once again turns his brush to the wars of the 18th and 19th centuries, focusing on the storied battles of those conflicts. From the French and Indian War through the Civil War,

Troiani brings his flair for painstaking detail and high drama to such famous battle scenes as Bushy Run, Bunker Hill, Cowpens, Burnside's Bridge at Antietam, Little Round Top at Gettysburg, and Chickamauga. Narratives by leading military historians accompany the paintings and provide background stories that are as exciting as they are informative. For many of the pieces, Troiani has written insightful and often humorous commentary on the joys, surprises, and challenges of the creative process, offering a rare glimpse of the artist at work. "Don Troiani's American Battles" is his most unique work to date, a must-have for newcomers and old fans alike. It includes a foreword by Peter Harrington and is lavishly illustrated with full-colour artwork, some of which can only be found.
