Burning, looting, raping, murdering, Hitler's Penal Regiment advanced on the center of Warsaw leaving in their wake a bloody trail of death and destruction. They killed indiscriminately: Pole or German, man, woman or child - anyone who crossed their path was eliminated. For Himmler had sworn that Warsaw would be razed to the ground - if it took every member of the German army to do it! And to the Führer's expendable battalions, for whom life had no meaning, the battle for Warsaw became an inferno - an endless Reign of Hell
