Foreword
Emotional healing is also referred to as inner healing is a subject that definitely needs to be talked about. It must however be discussed in a scriptural balanced way that produces godly results. Our inner life is much more important than our outer life. The Apostle Paul said in 2 Corinthians 4:16 that even though our outer man is (progressively) decaying and wasting away our inner self is being (progressively) renewed day after day. Romans 14:17 lets us know that the kingdom of God is not meat and drink (not outward things) but it is righteousness peace and joy in the Holy Spirit and Luke 17:21 says the kingdom of God is within you. The summation of what I have learned over the years in this regard is that Jesus is my King. The kingdom He desires to reign over is my inner life -- my mind emotions desires etc. He brings with Him righteousness peace and joy. No matter what difficulties or trials I may experience in my outward life if I am whole inside I will not only survive but I will enjoy my life. Many many people seem to have it all together outwardly but inside they are a wreck. That was my situation before I learned that the Lord's main concern is my inner life. Matthew 6:33 states that we are to seek first the kingdom (remember it is within you) and His righteousness and then these other things will be added unto us.

 In Isaiah 61 the Lord said that He came to heal the brokenhearted. I believe that means those broken inside¼Œ those crushed and wounded inwardly.
