WELCOME to the college of Mount saintntThis is a meeting to celebrate the centennial of the Greater City of New YorkHere we are on the northern boundary of that cityand on the westernmost boundary as well!A corner jewel that is in full bloom this day We are delighted to host this unique gatheringIt is the first meeting of its kindand the only one SO far of the official centennial events that brings together the historical institutions of all five boroughsWe are grateful to our speakers for joining US and sharing their insightsI wonder what the bicentennial meeting will be likeWill seven boroughs be representedand include parts of New Jersey and Westchester County?
This is the fourth annual conference in a series dedicated to urban issuesYou may have noticed the books we have pub hshed on previous conferencesThe Official artist for the series Jan Munroand her husband Charles have contributed their beautiful art to this project as wellThe conferences and books are produced by the Institute for Applied Philosophy in collabo ration with The Bronx County Historical Society and The History of New York City ProjectInc
