William W. Johnstone is Zebra and Pennacle's most prolific writer, with over 100 books to his credit -- and over 10 million copies of his book in print. No one tells the gritty story of the Old West like Johnstone...and no gunslinger has ever captured our imaginations like his legendary character, Smoke Jensen. Now in its twelfth printing, "The Last Mountain Man" is the of a rousing, two-fisted series that includes twenty-five books, and is still growing.
