Drawing on previously unused archival material in Russia, Latvia, and Armenia and on insights from social and critical theory, Peter Gatrell considers the origins of displacement and its political implications and provides a close analysis of humanitarian initiatives and the relationships between refugees and the communities in which they settled. Peter Gatrell is Professor of Modern History at the University of Manchester. His previous books include The Tsarist Economy 1850-1917 and Government, Industry, and Rearmament in Russia, 1900-1914.
