This book is a profound collection of Aleksandar Zograf's comics and correspondences during the war in Serbia. It captures the essence of life during wartime, seen from the apartment window of one who was there at ground zero - the moral ambiguities of war, the horrific reality, the humanity. This volume includes Zografs entire e-mail correspondence to his friends throughout the world during the bombing of his hometown of Pancevo, as well as all of his comic strips produced over the decade Bosnian/Serbian war. For those who appreciated Joe Sacco's "Safe Area Gorazde and Palestine", you will not want to miss this very important book.
