'I think...therefore I'm single.' One Hot Chick is a follow up to the popular Follow Your Dreams from the successful license Co-Edikit. This hip guide captures the stream of common thoughts we all have but don't necessarily share. By pairing original one-liners such as, "How sweet! You think I care!" and "I'm so miserable without you...it's almost like you're still here," with hilarious illustrations, One Hot Chick is a shout out to anyone struggling with their relationship (nearly everyone) or who is just trying to enjoy living the single life (everyone else).
