Over a hundred of the very best cartoons on business and finance from The New Yorker. What's so funny about business? Plenty--when it's the subject of The New Yorker's wittiest cartoonists! Here are 110 of the very best cartoons on business and finance from 75 years of The New Yorker--now available in a high quality, full-sized, low-priced trade paperback edition. This wonderfully entertaining collection features over 100 classics from some of our greatest cartoonists. David Remnick, distinguished author and editor of The New Yorker, joins in with a delightful introductory essay. Featured Artists: Charles Addams, Peter Arno, Charles Barsotti, George Booth, Roz Chast, Tom Cheney, Richard Cline, Leo Cullum, Sam Gross, William Hamilton, J.B. Handelsman, Bruce Eric Kaplan (BEK), Edward Koren, Lee Lorenz, Robert Mankoff, Warren Miller, Bernard Schoenbaum, Danny Shanahan, Edward Sorel, James Stevenson, Eric Teitelbaum, Mike Twohy, Robert Weber, Gahan Wilson, Jack Ziegler, and more.
