Louie Nishiwaki is still held prisoner inside the mysterious coffin and nearly everyone has forgotten that he ever existed. If he is not released from the coffin immediately he will be forgotten forever. Kurou is adamant about his plan to become Louie's replacement, but the coffin will not accept any Nosferatu other than Matsydaura... Will it accept Kurou as a replacement? Is Kurou really the son of Nosferatu? Mr. Tsuchiya and Mr. Sato both have their own reasons for not wanting Kurou to enter the coffin, but they soon come to blows over their differences... Who will win this fierce battle, and what are Mr. Sato's motives for helping Kurou and his friends? Is he really an ally--or something more sinister?
