When contemplating what to name their strip, Jerry Scott and Jim Borgman sought the insight of Charles Schulz, who told them that "Zits" was "the worst name for a comic strip since "Peanuts."" It makes perfect sense then that "Zits" has achieved Peanuts-like notoriety. Equally enjoyed by teens and their parental counterparts, "Zits" appealingly tackles teen issues with equal parts grace and wit. Parents Connie and Walt masterfully guide fifteen-year-old Jeremy Duncan through the pratfalls of teenagedom accompanied by his girlfriend Sara and best friends Hector and Pierce.
